

Middlesex Water Company Appoints Robert Hoglund to Board of Directors

December 22, 2025

ISELIN, N.J., Dec. 22, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Middlesex Water Company, ("Middlesex" or the "Company") (NASDAQ:MSEX), announced today the appointment of Robert Hoglund to its Board of Directors, effective January 1, 2026.

Over his career, Mr. Hoglund has held several senior financial leadership roles, including more than 18 years as Chief Financial Officer of Consolidated Edison, Inc. He previously served as a Managing Director in Citigroup's Mergers & Acquisitions Group, advising Fortune 500 utilities and energy companies on mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, restructurings, and multi-billion-dollar equity and debt financings.

Mr. Hoglund remains actively engaged in corporate governance, serving on boards and advising on finance modernization, enterprise risk management, and investor engagement. His current work reflects a continued commitment to strengthening financial resilience and guiding organizations through complex utility, energy transition, and capital markets challenges.

His professional background is complemented by service in the nonprofit sector, long-standing involvement in executive development programs, and a personal commitment to supporting the next generation of leaders in the utility and financial industries.

"We are excited to announce the addition of Robert to our Board," said Nadine Leslie, Chair, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Middlesex Water Company. "His distinguished career, marked by significant expertise in governance, complex utility finance, and operational strategy will strengthen the future we are building for our company, customers, and communities."
