

Middlesex Water Company Announces Annual Meeting Results

May 24, 2017

ISELIN, N.J., May 24, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Middlesex Water Company (NASDAQ:MSEX), a provider of water and wastewater and related services held its Annual Meeting on May 23, 2017 at which shareholders re-elected director John R. Middleton, M.D., to a one-year term and directors James F. Cosgrove Jr., P. E. and Jeffries Shein each to three-year terms. Shareholders also approved a non-binding advisory resolution approving the compensation of the Company's named executive officers, approved a one-year frequency for the non-binding vote approving named executive officer compensation and voted to ratify the Audit Committee's selection of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017.

During the meeting, officers discussed the company's 2016 financial results, customer growth, as well as operational plans under its Water for Tomorrow® capital campaign in New Jersey. Planned projects include construction of a large supplementary transmission main, conversion to ozone treatment, water meter relocations, booster station upgrades, additional elevated storage needs – all designed to enhance service reliability, resiliency and water quality both now and in the future. Management's presentation at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders is available in the Investor Relations section of the company's website www.middlesexwater.com under News & Market Data/Presentations and Interviews.
