Middlesex Water Company Board Members Honored for Community Service and Leadership

Jeffries Shein

ISELIN, NJ (June 27, 2014) -- Middlesex Water Company (NASDAQ:MSEX) a water utility serving customers in New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania is pleased to report that its lead Director Jeffries Shein and board member Amy B. Mansue were recipients of recent honors.

Shein, a director since 1990, was honored when the New Jersey Institute For Disabilities (NJID) dedicated and named its new Adult Training Center Building on Route 1 in Iselin, NJ in his honor this spring. Shein is Managing Partner of JGT Management Company, LLC. Shein, who also serves as President of the Marion and Norman Tanzman Charitable Foundation, has been a longtime advocate and generous supporter of the NJID which serves more than 1500 infants, children and adults with disabilities throughout the state. The 6500 sq. foot training facility serves adults with disabilities ranging from ages 21-75 through development, vocational opportunities and community integration. Through NJID day programs, participants can enjoy state of the art accessible technology, life skills training, job activities training and educational excursions as well as cultural and volunteer activities.

Amy B. Mansue, a board member since 2010, was recently inducted into the New Jersey Business Hall of Fame. Mansue is president and chief executive officer of Children's Specialized Hospital, the largest pediatric rehabilitation hospital in the country. Mansue was recognized with the prestigious designation granted to New Jersey's "ultimate role models" for her leadership in the social services and health care sector and for her tireless advocacy for quality healthcare.

Under Mansue's guidance, Children's Specialized Hospital was named the 2012 Hospital of the Year by NJBIZ Healthcare Heroes and holds the distinct honor of being the only pediatric rehabilitation system to be named to New York Magazine's Top Hospitals Listing. Mansue also serves as First Vice Chair of the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce.

Amy B. Mansue

"Community service, advocacy and leadership are values we embrace and encourage throughout the entire Middlesex Water family of companies and Jeff and Amy's commitment at the board level sets an example for all of us," said Dennis Doll, Middlesex Water President and CEO. "We congratulate them on these notable achievements," added Doll.
